

Multidisciplinary Perspectives on LAO STUDIES

Edited by Karen L. Adams and Thomas John Hudak

We are pleased to announce the publication of papers from the Second International Conference on Lao Studies held at Arizona State University.

MULTIDISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVES ON LAO STUDIES

Edited by Karen L. Adams and Thomas John Hudak

Papers in this volume address topics in the arts and humanities, the social sciences, and the sciences across five major themes:

- language, literacy and information access;
- preservation and reinterpretation of material and visual texts;
- discourses of history;
- dynamics of cultivation, economics, and sustainable practices; and
- issues of gender and ethnicity: marginalization and adaptation.

Theoretical approaches necessary to the understanding of the rich and complex social and cultural contexts are analyzed in numerous papers, and many others suggest best practices. Includes maps, tables, illustrations, and index.

The volume will be available in August 2010 and can be pre-ordered for $24 U.S., including postage, via email:
